Sir,

Sub:- E payment of road restoration charges to PWD - regarding

Ref:- Circular No.Annual Accounts/TDS – e-payment/2009 dated 25.6.2009

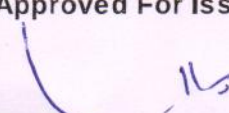

Vide circular cited above, it was directed to open separate bank account for the purpose of e-payment of various taxes. Now, various ARUs have informed that PWD/NH authorities insist on making the e payment of license fee and road restoration charges. It is also informed that PWD/NH authorities are not allowing any other mode of payment for such charges and sought clarification as to whether E-payment account of the ARU could be utilised for online remittance of road restoration charges and license fee. Considering these facts into account, it is clarified that e -payment account opened in the ARUs for the remittance of taxes could be utilised also for remittance of road restoration charges and license fee through treasury E- chalan and bharatkosh.gov.in respectively.

Yours faithfully
