POWER (B) DEPARTMENT

G.O.(Rt)No.07/2012/PD.

Dated, Thiruvananthapuram, 13/01/2012.

READ: G.O(Rt) 145/2011/PD dated 06/07/2011.

ORDER

1) The difficulties being experienced by the general public for getting electric connection for want of building number has been redressed by entertaining additional documents such as Possession Certificate, Residential Certificate, Voters ID Card etc, as per the Government Order read above.

2) It has now come to the notice of Government that places of worship, religious teaching institutions like Madrassas are denied of electric connection for years, for want of building number issued by the local bodies.

3) As part of State policy of complete electrification, Government are pleased to order that the following categories of buildings/institutions without house numbers be allowed electric connection on production of concrete documentary evidence to prove that the buildings/institutions are functioning in those premises for the purpose mentioned, for more than five years continuously.

- i) Places of worship such as temples, Mosques, Churches.
- ii) Offices of political parties having representation in the Legislative Assembly.

4) The KSEB will arrange to issue necessary directions in this regard to their Subordinate Offices and ensure that all eligible customers are extended the supply.
